Project Undertaken

• Formulation and Evaluation of Polyherbal Hair Gel

--The aim of this project was to develop a natural and effective hair gel using herbal extracts and ingredients that can prevent hair fall and eliminate dandruff. The hair gel was formulated by combining flaxseed extract, aloe vera extract, fenugreek seed extract, Carbopol, methyl paraben, glycerine, PEG, triethanolamine, and water to obtain the mixtures. The hair gel was then evaluated for pH, viscosity, spreadability, stability, homogeneity.

--Hair gel containing natural ingredients and herbal extracts can offer several benefits for hair health and beauty. Unlike synthetic and chemical-based hair products, herbal hair gel can nourish the hair follicles, moisturize the scalp, and stimulate hair growth. Herbal hair gel can also provide a natural shine.
